at Coed Clyn picnic site carpark by Cilrhedyn Bridge in the Gwaun Valley

Afternoon drink
Dyffryn Arms (Bessie's)

Note: the council call Pontfaen village "Cwm Gwaun" (which is the name of the valley)

VIEW POINT
May see Ireland
(Wicklow Hills),
Snowdonia & Lleyn
Peninsular, Gower,
Lundy Island, &
Devon

LUNCH
at Tavern Sinc

STOP at kissing gate on right to
"Cylch Cerrig Gorsfawr Stone Circle" (faded sign?), opposite small roadside cottage on left. Walk to stone circle (small stones; king stone out to right). Walk around stone circle in a Widdershins direction (anti-clockwise), eating Garibaldi biscuits. And, retrace back to Mynachlog-ddu village and straight on "Crymch"

Site of battle between King Arthur and the boar. Arthur had chased the boar from Ireland, where it had been causing havoc. They landed at Porth Clais (SW of St David's) and finally caught up with it here. Two of Arthur's sons were killed in the battle.

On left is a bluestone, airlifted down from the ridge above. On right is a monument stone commemorating Waldo, a famous Welsh bard.

The 1st toll gate burnt during the Rebecca Riots (1839)
was at Efailwen

The Stonehenge bluestones probably came from here
